NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Non-disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into and made effective as of 23rd August, 2026 (the "Effective Date") by and between Cwik Technologies LLC, a Michigan limited liability company having an office and place of business at 206 E Huron St, Ann Arbor, MI 48104 ("Discloser") and Aggie Safety & Loss Control LLC, limited liability company having an office and place of business at 6001 Savoy Drive, Suite 201B, Houston, TX 77036 ("Recipient") (each, a "Party" and together, the "Parties").

1. Purpose: Recipient performs services for Discloser as an independent contractor, including services performed for or in connection with clients of Discloser. The Parties have entered into this Agreement to facilitate the exchange of information between them for the purpose of Recipient performing such services for Discloser and for Discloser's clients (the "Permitted Purpose"), and solely for that Permitted Purpose Discloser has or may disclose to the Recipient information that is to be treated as confidential. Recipient acknowledges that Discloser performs services for third-party clients and that Recipient may receive Confidential Information belonging to, or originating from, such clients.

2. Confidential Information:
Except as otherwise expressly set forth in this paragraph, all information and documentation which Recipient or any of its Representatives (as hereinafter defined) receives, whether from Discloser or by its Representatives, from any client of Discloser, or from any of their respective Representatives, personnel, premises or systems, and all notes, analyses or other materials prepared by Recipient or its Representatives that contain or reflect, in whole or part, upon such information or documentation, is hereinafter referred to as "Confidential Information." Confidential Information shall include, without limitation, technology, works of authorship, techniques, drawings, trade secrets, proprietary rights, inventions, know-how, processes, formulae, specifications and design details, software, source code, algorithms and schematics, database technologies, information regarding new services, research, development, products, marketing and selling plans, market studies, business plans, budgets, unpublished financial statements, historical and projected financial information, operational data and organizational and cost structures, contracts, licensing and/or distribution arrangements, prices, costs, suppliers, customers, customer information and customer lists of Discloser or of any client of Discloser as is made available to Recipient or its Representatives, whether before or after the date hereof and whether in printed, electronic, oral or any other form or by inspection of intangible objects. The term "person" as used in this Agreement shall be interpreted broadly to include, without limitation, the media and any natural person, corporation, company, partnership, governmental agency, stock exchange, association, group or other entity. The terms "Representative" and "Representatives" as used in this Agreement shall be interpreted broadly to include a Party's equity holders, directors, officers, employees, affiliates, agents, legal counsel, advisors or representatives. Confidential Information further includes all information of Discloser's clients, customers and affiliates, however received, including the identity of any such client, the existence and terms of Discloser's engagement with that client, and any agreement between Discloser and such client. All Confidential Information of a client of Discloser shall be held and protected by Recipient as if it were Confidential Information of Discloser under this Agreement, and Discloser's clients are intended third-party beneficiaries of this Agreement with respect to their own Confidential Information.

3. Disclosure and Use Restrictions:

(a) Use. Recipient covenants and agrees that, with respect to the Discloser's Confidential Information, it shall not (except as permitted by this Section 3 or with the prior written consent of Discloser) for a period of five (5) years from receipt, and with respect to any trade secret for so long as such information remains a trade secret under applicable law,: (i) disclose Confidential Information to any person other than its Representatives who, in each case, have a need to know and have prior to receiving any Confidential Information signed a nondisclosure agreement, the provisions of which are at least as restrictive as the provisions of this Agreement, or are otherwise bound by obligations of confidentiality at least as restrictive; (ii) use Confidential Information for any purpose other than the Permitted Purpose or as might otherwise be expressly permitted by this Agreement, (iii) use Confidential Information for the benefit of anyone but Discloser, or (iv) copy, decompile, disassemble or reverse engineer any prototypes, software or other tangible objects which embody the Discloser's Confidential Information except to the extent necessary for the Permitted Purpose and which shall be immediately destroyed upon completion of the Permitted Purpose. Recipient shall keep in confidence and prevent the acquisition, disclosure, use or misappropriation by any person or persons of the Discloser's Confidential Information, provided, however, that Recipient shall not be liable for disclosure of any such information that is disclosed as permitted by this Section 3 or with the prior written consent of the Discloser.

(b) Degree of Care. Recipient shall use the same care to avoid disclosure, publication or dissemination of Confidential Information as it uses with its own similar confidential information, provided that Recipient shall use at least reasonable care.

(c) Exclusions. Confidential Information shall not include any information disclosed to Recipient that it can demonstrate (i) previously was in its possession, as shown by its preexisting records, without violation of any obligation of confidentiality, (ii) was received from a third party without violation of any obligation of confidentiality; (iii) was publicly known and made generally available prior to such disclosure; (iv) becomes publicly known and made generally available, through no action or inaction of Recipient, after such disclosure; or (v) was independently developed by Recipient without using, or reference to, Discloser's Confidential Information, in each case as evidenced by contemporaneous written documentation.

(d) Legal Processes. If Recipient is required by a valid order of a court or other governmental body or otherwise required by law to disclose Confidential Information, it shall give Discloser timely written notice of such requirement before disclosing any such information and shall cooperate with Discloser to seek a protective order, confidential treatment or other appropriate measures requiring, amongst other things, that the information and/or documents so disclosed be used only for the purposes for which the order was issued and parts of the information and/or documents so disclosed be redacted to limit the extent of disclosure. Recipient shall give the notice described above only to the extent legally permitted, and shall disclose only that portion of the Confidential Information which Recipient's counsel advises is legally required to be disclosed. No disclosure made under this Section shall operate as a waiver of Recipient's obligations under this Agreement with respect to the disclosed information in any other context.

4. No Obligation to Proceed. Nothing herein shall obligate either Party to proceed with any transaction between them, and each Party reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate the discussions contemplated by this Agreement. Accordingly, this Agreement does not constitute a binding agreement to enter into any definitive agreement.

5. No Warranty. ALL CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION IS PROVIDED "AS IS". DISCLOSER MAKES NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR OTHERWISE, REGARDING ITS ACCURACY, COMPLETENESS OR PERFORMANCE. DISCLOSER HAS NO OBLIGATION TO UPDATE OR CORRECT ANY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

6. Return of Materials. All documents, software, reagents and other tangible objects containing or representing Discloser's Confidential Information, all Confidential Information of any client of Discloser, and all equipment, files, records, media and other property belonging to Discloser or to any client of Discloser, and all copies thereof that are in Recipient's possession, shall be and remain the property of Discloser or its client, as applicable, and shall be promptly returned to Discloser or, at Discloser's election, destroyed, upon the earlier of (i) completion or termination of the engagement to which the Confidential Information relates and (ii) Discloser's written request, and Recipient shall certify such return or destruction in writing upon request. Recipient may retain one archival copy solely to the extent necessary for compliance with legal, regulatory, insurance or tax requirements, and any such retained copy shall remain subject to all confidentiality obligations of this Agreement for so long as it is retained, notwithstanding any expiration or termination of this Agreement.

7. No Transfer or License. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to grant or transfer any right to Recipient under any patent, copyright or intellectual property right of the Discloser, nor shall this Agreement grant or transfer to any Recipient any right in or to the Confidential Information of the Discloser, or any Derivatives thereof, except as expressly set forth herein. "Derivatives" means: (i) for copyrightable or copyrighted material, any translation, abridgement, revision or other form in which an existing work may be recast, transformed or adapted; (ii) for patentable or patented material, any improvement thereon; and (iii) for material which is protected by trades secret, any new material derived from such existing trade secret material, including, but not limited to, new material which may be protected by copyright, patent and/or trade secret.

8. Term. Recipient's obligations with respect to Confidential Information shall continue for a period of five (5) years from the date of disclosure of the relevant Confidential Information; provided, however, that Recipient's obligations with respect to any information constituting a trade secret shall continue for so long as such information remains a trade secret under applicable law. Sections 6, 7, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 shall survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement.

9. Ownership of Work Product. All work product, deliverables, reports, assessments, documents, templates, drawings, photographs, data and other materials created, conceived or prepared by Recipient, alone or with others, in the course of or in connection with the Permitted Purpose (collectively, "Work Product") shall be the sole and exclusive property of Discloser and, to the extent eligible, shall be deemed a "work made for hire" under applicable copyright law. To the extent any Work Product does not so qualify, Recipient hereby irrevocably assigns to Discloser all right, title and interest in and to such Work Product, including all intellectual property rights therein, and waives all moral rights and rights of attribution or integrity therein. Recipient shall promptly execute any further documents and take any further actions reasonably requested by Discloser to perfect, record or enforce such assignment, at Discloser's expense. Recipient shall identify to Discloser in writing, before use, any pre-existing materials of Recipient or of any third party that Recipient incorporates into Work Product, and hereby grants Discloser a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, non-exclusive, fully paid-up, sublicensable and transferable license to use, reproduce, modify, distribute and create derivative works of such pre-existing materials as incorporated into, or as necessary to use, the Work Product. Recipient shall not incorporate into any Work Product any material licensed under the GPL, LGPL or any other copyleft or reciprocal license without Discloser's prior written consent. Recipient represents and warrants that the Work Product will not infringe or misappropriate the intellectual property or other proprietary rights of any third party.

10. Responsibility for Representatives. Recipient shall ensure that each of its Representatives who receives Confidential Information complies with this Agreement, and Recipient shall be liable for any act or omission of any such Representative that would constitute a breach of this Agreement if committed by Recipient.

11. Client Rules; Handling of Confidential Information. Where Recipient performs services in connection with an engagement between Discloser and a client, Recipient shall (i) comply with that client's then-current access, safety, security and confidentiality rules and procedures as communicated by Discloser or by the client; (ii) observe any confidentiality, intellectual property, data-protection or information-security obligations imposed on Discloser under its agreement with that client, to the extent communicated to Recipient; and (iii) acknowledge that Recipient has no expectation of privacy with respect to the client's telecommunications, networking or information-processing systems, and that Recipient's activities on those systems may be monitored and the contents thereof reviewed and disclosed at any time without notice. Recipient shall store Confidential Information only on devices and services that are access-controlled and reasonably secured, shall not transmit or upload Confidential Information to any generative artificial intelligence tool, public model or other third-party cloud service that is not expressly approved in writing by Discloser, and shall notify Discloser without undue delay, and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours, of any actual or suspected loss of, unauthorized access to, or unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information.

12. Indemnification. Recipient shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Discloser, its members, managers, officers, employees and agents, and any client of Discloser to which Recipient's services relate, from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from or relating to any third-party claim resulting from (i) Recipient's breach of this Agreement; (ii) any negligence or willful misconduct of Recipient or any of Recipient's Representatives; (iii) any claim that the Work Product, or the use thereof as contemplated by this Agreement, infringes or misappropriates any third party's intellectual property or other proprietary right; or (iv) any claim that Recipient or any of Recipient's Representatives is an employee of Discloser or of any client of Discloser, or is otherwise entitled to employee benefits from either.

13. Independent Contractor; Insurance. Recipient is an independent contractor and is not an employee, partner, agent or joint venturer of Discloser or of any client of Discloser, and has no authority to bind, incur liability on behalf of, or make any representation on behalf of either. Recipient is solely responsible for all taxes, withholdings and statutory contributions arising from amounts paid to Recipient. Recipient shall obtain and maintain, at Recipient's own expense and in Recipient's own name, workers' compensation, disability, commercial general liability and professional liability (errors and omissions) insurance, and, where Recipient handles personal data or a client's systems or data on Recipient's own systems, cyber liability insurance, in each case with financially sound and reputable insurers and with limits sufficient to cover the anticipated exposure given the nature and scope of Recipient's services, together with any licenses and permits necessary to perform such services. Recipient shall furnish certificates or other proof of such coverage to Discloser upon request and shall promptly notify Discloser of any cancellation of, or material change to, such coverage.

14. Records. Recipient shall maintain complete and accurate records of the services performed and of any expenses invoiced under any engagement to which this Agreement relates for a period of at least three (3) years following the date of the relevant invoice, and shall make such records available to Discloser upon reasonable request.

15. Non-Circumvention. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of twelve (12) months following completion or termination of the last engagement in which Recipient participated, Recipient shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit or accept engagements from, or enter into any agreement to provide services substantially similar to the services performed under this Agreement to, any client of Discloser to which Recipient was introduced or exposed by Discloser, without Discloser's prior written consent. This Section does not restrict Recipient from providing services to any party with which Recipient had a pre-existing relationship established independently of Discloser, as evidenced by Recipient's written records.

16. Miscellaneous.

(a) Publicity. Neither Party shall, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement or with the advance written consent of the other Party, disclose to any person the fact that the Parties are holding discussions or any of the terms, conditions or other facts with respect to any possible transaction between the Parties, nor issue any press release or otherwise originate any news relating to those discussions.

(b) Other Remedies Cumulative. Except where otherwise specified, the rights and remedies granted to Discloser under this Agreement are cumulative and in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights or remedies that Discloser may possess at law or in equity, including, without limitation, rights or remedies under applicable patent, copyright, trade secret, or proprietary right laws, rules or regulations.

(c) No Implied Waivers. The delay or failure by Discloser to exercise or enforce any of its rights under this Agreement shall not constitute or be deemed a waiver of Discloser's right thereafter to enforce those rights, nor shall any single or partial exercise of such right preclude any other further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right.

(d) Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or otherwise unenforceable, the same shall not affect the other terms or provisions hereof or the whole of this Agreement, but such term or provision shall be deemed modified to the extent necessary in the court's opinion to render such term or provision enforceable, and the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be construed and enforced accordingly, preserving to the fullest permissible extent the intent and agreements of the Parties.

(e) Injunctive Relief. If Recipient breaches or threatens to breach any provision of this Agreement, Discloser will suffer irreparable injury and shall be entitled to temporary and permanent injunctions, in addition to the other remedies for breach of the Agreement, and Recipient shall waive, and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its Representatives to waive, any requirement for security or posting any bond in connection with such remedy.

(f) Notice. Any notice or other communication given pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective upon its personal delivery to the Party for whom it is intended, or upon its delivery (with confirmation) by an overnight delivery service, or five days following its deposit into the United States mail (certified mail, return receipt requested), addressed to such Party at the address set forth in the signature block of this Agreement. Either Party may designate a different address by providing notice to the other in accordance with this paragraph.

(g) Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of law thereof and no proceeding related directly or indirectly to this letter agreement shall be commenced, prosecuted, or continued in any court other than the courts of the State of Michigan located in Washtenaw County or in the United States District Court of the Eastern District of Michigan. Each Party agrees to waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such proceeding brought in any Michigan court specified in this paragraph and any claim that any such proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum and to waive all rights to trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim brought by or on behalf of either party with respect to any matter whatsoever relating to or arising out of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for temporary or preliminary injunctive relief.

(h) Successors and Assigns. This Agreement incorporates the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous agreements should they exist with respect thereto. This Agreement is binding upon each Party's successors and/or assigns.

(i) No Amendment; Waivers. This Agreement may not be modified or amended except by the mutual written agreement of the Parties. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the Party against which it is sought to be enforced.

(j) Compliance with Applicable Law. Both Parties shall adhere to all applicable laws, regulations and rules relating to the export of technical data, and shall not export or re-export any technical data, any products received from Discloser, or the direct product of such technical data to any proscribed country listed in such applicable laws, regulations and rules.

(k) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which when executed will be deemed an original and together will constitute one and the same agreement. This Agreement shall not be enforceable against either Party unless each Party executes the Agreement and delivers it to the other. The signatory for each Party below represents and warrants that he or she has full authority and power to execute this Agreement on behalf of that Party.
